What questions do you have?

- PubMed (Publicly accessible - but some full text is UW restricted) (UW Health Sciences Library How-to Guides.) (PubMed Tutorials and Quick Tours.) (MeSH On Demand tool.) (PubMed for Nurses--Video Tutorials.)
- National Library of Medicine’s search service to access the 25 million citations in Medline and Pre-Medline (with links to participating on-line journals), and other related databases.
- If you are off-campus and want to access the UW Restricted full text in PubMed, click on the PubMed link above and you should be prompted to login with your UW NetID and password.
- Use the UW Libraries Search to locate full text articles online and in print. Books, journals, films and other formats of resources are also available. Some items are UW Restricted. See the UW Libraries Search Help Guide for directions.

Below is an image of the required homework assignments in Canvas (https://canvas.uw.edu)

In your BHS 300 Canvas space, in the Home: Week 2 (April 8 & 10, 2019) area, you will find the following assignments:

- “Background Research Activity— due Wednesday, April 10, by 11:59pm.” This activity will explain the role of academic background research and guide you through finding a couple of background sources on your research topic in preparation for your literature review matrix assignment. Due by Wednesday, April 10.

- “PubMed Library Learning Activity— due Friday, April 12, by 11:59pm.” For this assignment, you are going to search in PubMed and answer 11 questions about what search words you experimented with, your search results, your overall experiences and suggestions for improvements for this learning activity. Due by Friday, April 12.
